Dinner at 6:30 PM ...followed by Program... concluded by 8:30 PM.

What: 2008 Torch of Liberty Award Dinner

The theme will be "Passing the Torch," a community wide, multi-generational event featuring Parent/Child Honorees who have made a significant contribution to our community. It promises to be a lively evening with enough fast paced fun and genuine inspiration to engage everyone who attends!

Who: The Mountain States Region of the Anti-Defamation League will honor three families, representing diverse areas of community involvement: Antonoff • Baca • McNicholas

Why: To recognize and honor parents who are passing on to their children the noblest traditions of the United States of America. People who care enough to put their caring into action and who regard responsibility for the well-being of the community as among the most cherished rights and privileges of citizenship. Faithful to our heritage of humanitarian values, these families give of themselves in public service, nurturing the community and working to secure its future.
