

Bearing Witness™

Washington, DC Region

A program of the Stanley S. Bender Institute

Instructions for the 2011 Application

The Washington, DC Regional Bearing Witness Summer Institute for Catholic School Educators is a unique professional development program of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), the Archdiocese of Washington, the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum (USHMM), the National Catholic Educational Association (NCEA) and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Bearing Witness is the recipient of NCEA's 2000 SPICE award (Selected Programs for Improving Catholic Education) and the 2008 President's Award.

The Institute is funded by various donors and supporters. Hotel accommodations at the National 4-H Conference Center, transportation in DC, and meals taking place during the program are covered through these funds. Applicants selected to participate are responsible only for their transportation to/from the conference site and a registration fee of $100. Note: All participants are expected to stay overnight in the conference center, which will be arranged by ADL, from July 24 to 28, 2011.

Before you begin working on the application, please read the Conditions of Eligibility below.

Conditions of Eligibility:

Catholic school teachers of history, social studies, religion, English and ethics at the middle school and high school level, as well as administrators and librarians, are encouraged to apply for the Washington, DC Regional Bearing Witness Summer Institute. Teachers of other subject areas will be considered but must demonstrate how they will integrate the Holocaust into the content of their course(s).

Participants are expected to:

- Attend a five-day institute in Washington, DC from July 24 to 28, 2011; and
- Submit a "best lesson" six months following the Washington, DC Regional Bearing Witness Summer Institute that shows how information learned during the Institute has been integrated in the classroom.

Submit your application to:

Anti-Defamation League
1100 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 1020
Washington, DC 20036

You may fax your application to (202) 296-2371 or
