STATEMENT OF EXPECTATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Program Details & Requirements

- Monthly meetings, held throughout the year, serve as a vehicle to educate participants on the full range of issues and programming on the ADL agenda. Meetings date and time vary by region. In order to complete the program, the participant must attend at least 8 meetings.

- All GLI participants attend the Shana Glass National Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C., April 29 – May 1, 2012. The conference convenes in Washington D.C., and over 500 Board members, professionals, and GLI participants from around the country gather for 3 days of in-depth meetings and interactive sessions with national leaders on ADL issues. Past speakers include U.S. Attorney General Eric Holder, Chief-of-Staff Rahm Emmanuel, Israeli Ambassador Michael Oren, Sec. of State Colin Powell, Secretary of Education Arnie Duncan, National Security Advisor Condoleezza Rice, Representatives from Facebook, Analysts and Campaign Managers Donna Brazile and David Frum, just to name just a few. GLI participants are responsible for airfare and partial registration fees; hotel and meals are paid for by ADL.

- GLI participants also attend the National Executive Commission (NEC) meeting, which will be held in February 2012 at the Breaker's Hotel in Palm Beach. The meeting includes update on local, national and international issues of concern as well as ways in which ADL is responding to these issues. The NEC is attended by ADL professionals and lay leaders from around the country and presents GLI participants with the opportunity to see the depth and breadth of ADL resources in action. ADL's Florida office will cover the costs of GLI participants.

- There is a program fee associated with GLI of $360. The program fee should be paid in full before December 2011, with a minimum of $100 to be received by ADL before the first class.
