When picking our 2009-2010 Institute participants it is our goal to create a diverse group of people with different interests, expertise, and backgrounds. Occasionally, couples decide to apply together. Please be aware that we generally look at each application individually when making our selection. If you are applying with your significant other and would prefer to be considered together, please indicate that preference here.

Yes, both my significant other and I are submitting applications and we would prefer to be considered together.
